Dear Carlos:

I would like once again to express my pleasure in working with you in the "Light up Miami" project and to commend you and all of the participants associated with this outstanding community endeavor.

For too long a time the subject of so much adverse publicity, the City of Miami really deserved the wonderful showcase of its true beauty that "Light up Miami" provided.

The opening evening in November was a marvelous beginning for the project. But I must tell you, that with Orange Bowl's Parade coverage - and - during a post Parade visit with Joe Garagiola and some of the NBC people in front of the Inter-Continental, the pride and pleasure of witnessing this beautiful phenomenon was overwhelming for all of us.

Best wishes for continued success in this great adventure. Yes, let's all continue to "Light up Miami".

Sincerely,

Dan McNamara
Executive Vice President
